KAI-THOMAS ROTH
VIOLINMAKER

Kai-Thomas Roth was born in Germany. After training as a cabinetmaker in Switzerland he came to England to study at the Newark School of Violin Making. Following work experience in the trade he established with his wife Caroline Crowley their business as makers of fine instruments of the violin family in 1990.

CELLO

MAKER

Kai-Thomas makes Violins, Violas, Cellos and Double Bases to modern, transitional and baroque specifications, as well as Viols.

His reputation for Cellos, of which upward of 60 are being played in concert halls the world over, is virtually unrivalled in the United Kingdom. Customers benefit from Kai-Thomas's expertise in sound adjustment and set up, to suit the individual artist.
